Neighbors united for a better community

Northaven Hills Neighborhood Group

Officers and board members of the Neighborhood Group will be voted on Thursday, April 12 at the meeting to be held at 6740 N. Euclid at 7:00 p.m. All Northaven Hills residents are invited to attend.

The purpose of organizing neighborhood groups in Gladstone is to encourage communication among residents. Northaven Hills is not a homes association.

It can pay to know your neighbors.

Are your neighbors strangers to you? Here's an account by Captain Will Akin, Emergency Management Director for the Clay County Sheriff's Department, that may give you a different perspective on getting to know your neighbors.

Captain Akin responded to a call from residents just returning from vacation about a residential burglary. When he arrived at the residence he expected to find a home that was missing television sets and other electronics items, jewelry, etc. Instead, he found a house that was totally bare of furnishings or any other items. It looked like the residents had moved out. During his investigation he questioned the neighbors and asked whether or not they had noticed any activity at the house. The neighbors said they had noticed a U-Haul truck in the driveway and people loading and moving items all day long. They said they assumed their neighbors were moving!

To try and avoid something like this happening to you, Captain Akin recommends getting to know your neighbors. And when absent on vacation let trusted neighbors know you will be gone so they can report any suspicious activity to the police or sheriff's office.

Quote of the day

Long stormy spring-time, wet contentious April, winter chilling the lap of very May; but at length the season of summer does come.

Restaurant Review

Feed Supply Market & Deli

Feed Supply Market and Deli opened on March 8 at 504 N.E. 70th Street, across the street from The Heights Linden Square apartments, and a half block west of the Gladstone Community Center.

After an exercise session recently at the Community Center, my daughter and I visited Feed Supply Market & Deli for lunch. We enjoyed delicious sandwiches as well as browsing their variety of condiments, wine, desserts, deli items and much more. I bought some of my favorite cheese -- English Stilton with apricots.

I only looked at the delectable double-layer chocolate cake in the dessert counter because I'm dieting. But I'll definitely have a slice of that cake the next time I'm there. (I can take a couple of extra laps around the track at the Community Center.)

The restaurant serves breakfast, lunch and dinner Monday through Saturday. It is definitely a thumbs up dining experience you should not miss.

Tell your humans to get out that leash and get you to the park on time -- for a waggin' and sniffin' good time!
