

Guys and Dolls

Book by: Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows

Music & Lyrics by: Frank Loesser

Performance Dates: July 5th, 6th & 7th - 8:30 p.m.

Synopsis:

New York, the city that never sleeps and within it, all human life. From the news seller to the chorus girl, from the gambler to the missionary – all of them caught up in the teeming vitality of the city streets.

First there is Sergeant Sarah Brown, of the Save a Soul Mission, vainly trying to spread the Word and make a difference to the sin and depravity of the streets full of tipsters, gamblers and con men. Then there's Adelaide, the showgirl desperate to leave behind her seemingly glamorous lifestyle for a white picket fence and roses round the door. She has been engaged to Nathan Detroit for fourteen years, but his top priority is finding yet another new location for his floating dice game to keep ahead of the law. Finally, the gamblers themselves, eager for just one more roll...and the coolest, highest roller of the all, Sky Masterson, who will bet on anything that will turn him a profit.

Don't miss the dicey action of this game as Sky pursues Sarah and Nathan tries to win back Adelaide's favor when they declare that guys will do anything for the dolls they love.

Musical numbers include: "A Bushel and a Peck", "Luck Be a Lady", "Take Back Your Mink" and "Marry the Man Today".

Musical numbers include: "Iowa Stubborn", "(Ya Got) Trouble", "Till There Was You" and "Seventy Six Trombones".

In order to preserve the grass, blankets and lawn chairs may not be set out on performance nights until after 3:00 p.m. Anything placed before that time will be removed.
