Christmas at the Gaylord Opryland
December 3-6, 2019

Tuesday, December 3rd

Today you travel to Music City USA. You will arrive early this evening to your home for the next three nights, The Gaylord Opryland Hotel. This fabulous hotel features three interior garden spaces under glass roofs. The Conservatory is a botanical garden with more than 10,000 tropical plants, and the Cascades are a lushly planted area with a waterfall and fountain. The Delta covers 4.5 acres and is highlighted by a river and lake system with passenger-carrying flatboats. The hotel offers a variety of restaurants, and shops. During the holidays the hotel is transformed into a glittering holiday spectacular with a dazzling Christmas light display that must be seen to be believed. With more than 3 million twinkling lights, horse-drawn carriage rides, acres of stunning decorations, and an outdoor nativity display, there's no better way to celebrate the season!

Wednesday, December 4th

The morning is free to enjoy all the resort has to offer. Perhaps take a Delta River Flatboat down the scenic indoor river of the resort while a guide offers unique facts about the Delta's plants and fish. Later you'll experience a one-of-a-kind Christmas cruise down the Cumberland River aboard the beautiful General Jackson Showboat—one of the largest showboats in the country. The show features beloved classic Christmas songs as well as modern holiday favorites. Carefully crafted to feature twelve of Nashville's finest musicians, singers and dancers, this show embodies all of the spirit and magic of Christmas with dynamic, musical arrangements. You will enjoy Broadway-style dance numbers, jaw-dropping costumes, and a gorgeous light and multimedia display, plus a delicious meal! This afternoon you will have time to explore The Gaylord Opryland Resort's many holiday activities: ICE!, a winter holiday attraction featuring an interactive world of colorful ice sculptures and incredible 20-foot tall ice slides carved entirely from two million pounds of ice; Outdoor Nativity Display – featuring special lighting effects and an audio rendition of the biblical story of the birth of Christ; experience a horse-drawn carriage ride to enjoy the decorations and lights outside the resort. Don't miss the festive décor Santa's elves have added and the magical atmosphere of the holiday. This evening you will enjoy a special live holiday production at the resort. (Breakfast and lunch are included today).

Thursday, December 5th

Learn all about Nashville when you're joined by a knowledgeable step on guide. You will drive through historic downtown Nashville, Music Row, Honky Tonk Row, Bicentennial Park, the State Capitol, Centennial Park, the Parthenon, and more. After the tour, you will have free time at the resort. This evening you will take your seats for a fun evening featuring Grammy Award-winning Country superstar Trace Adkins as he entertains you with Christmas standards, Celtic classics, and a few of his favorite things. Join the multi-platinum artist and the renowned Gaylord Opryland chefs for a holiday dinner show to remember. (Breakfast and dinner are included today).

Friday, December 6th

Today you journey back to Gladstone with fond memories of a wonderful trip. (Breakfast is included today).
